

HOLIDAY WINE

With the Holiday season just around the corner, I've assembled a list of wines from the vineyards we recently visited in Italy. These are mostly all whites as they are from the Dolomite mountains. You may order from this form as the wines have just arrived from Italy and we'll arrange your pickup of wine. So get your orders in as Thanksgiving is quickly approaching and you'll want a bottle of the Abbazia's Riesling to go with your turkey!

Once you've filled out the form you may photograph or scan it and email it to me at roddysetgo@gmail.com
